ASAC Vision

The American Subcontractors Association of Colorado will continue to be recognized as the leading association fostering a collaborative business environment in the construction industry. Membership, including professional constructors, suppliers, and service providers, will work together to enhance and raise the standards in the industry.

ASAC Mission Statement

The American Subcontractors Association of Colorado promotes ethical and equitable business practices to bring positive change throughout the construction industry.

ASAC Values

American Subcontractors Association of Colorado, as a steward for the community, values and supports:

- ethical and equitable business practices,
- professionalism in subcontractors' work and business practices,
- a safe and healthy work environment for all workers, and
- quality in all work in the construction environment

ASAC Goals

Goal 1: Advocacy

Advocate to protect the rights of subcontractors and specialty trade contractors and improve the business environment in which they operate, before all branches of government and the construction industry.

Goal 2: Collaboration

Encourage collaboration and communication among individuals and entities with similar interests and goals.

Goal 3: Communication

Increase communication with members, prospects and industry groups in a timely, focused, interactive and effective manner.

Goal 4: Education

Provide management and safety education to the construction industry.

Goal 5: Membership

Retain, increase and diversify membership.

Goal 6: Management and Governance

Manage and govern the Association as an efficient, profitable and ongoing business entity.
