

Subcontractor Point of View Summit Overview in Review from a Subs Point of View

by
Nick Williams, Safety Director
Absolute Caulking & Waterproofing, Inc.

Chair, ASAC Risk Management Committee

Thank you to the Premier Sponsor of the Summit, Preferred Safety Products and Cole Preferred Safety Consulting. Thank you to our Host, Wagner Rents | Wagner Training Institute. Thank you to Attendees, Construction Marketplace Vendors, Sponsors, Volunteers and ASAC Staff. Your attendance and participation in the 5th Annual Health and Safety Summit has have made Colorado Construction a healthier and safer industry.

Each year the presentations are a deep dive into innovative and creative ways to deliver the health and safety message. Content is continually better, stronger and deliver powerful information, tools and opportunity to keep our members, industry and employees healthier and safer.

Content was so amazing, that we have elected to share some of what the day had to offer with the readers of the February 21, 2018 Issue 2 of the Winter Safety Series. I hope to see you next year at the ASAC 6th Annual Health and Safety Summit!

- Health & Safety Summit 2018
- Brain Injury from Falling Objects | William Woo, MD, SCL Physicians Group
- Safety Perception Surveys | Trish Ennis, Executive Director Colorado Safety Association
- Put Your Team's Safety on Auto Pilot | Sharon Lipinski, Habit SuperHero & David Ruddy, Field Safety Manager, Pinkard Construction

Continue to be proactive and diligent, pay attention to your surroundings, develop safe and healthy habits and make 2018 the best year for you, your family and for our industry. Be safe! Be healthy! Be happy!

Winter Safety Series 2018
Issue 2 | February 21, 2018

American Subcontractors Association Colorado
3575 South Sherman Street, Suite 3 | Englewood, CO 80113
303.759.8260 | DScifo@ASAColorado.com